Extract from Pope Francis' message for the Third World Day of the Poor

The hope of the poor shall not perish forever

“These words of the Psalm remain timely. They express a profound truth that faith impresses above all on the hearts of the poor, restoring lost hope in the face of injustice, sufferings and the uncertainties of life.

I ask all Cristian communities, and all those who feel impelled to offer hope and consolation to the poor, to help ensure that this World Day of Poor will encourage more and more people to cooperate effectively so that no one will feel deprived of closeness and solidarity.

It is the obligation of the Christian to care for those who are vulnerable, because Christ identifies with those in poverty. The poor are persons to be encountered; they are lonely, young and old, to be invited to our homes to share a meal; men, women and children who look for a friendly word.

The poor save us because they enable us to encounter the face of Jesus Christ.”
