Extract from the Spring Meeting of the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference

The bishops stated, "At this time of trial, we want to stand in prayerful and practical solidarity with the Ukrainian community here in Ireland and also to acknowledge the many Russians in our midst who bear no responsibility for this tragic situation.

What we are witnessing during these days impels us again to appeal for diplomacy and dialogue – to work for a genuine human fraternity - as the only way to resolve differences and conflicts. As tens of thousands of refugees arrive in Ireland in the near future, there is no doubt that the Gospel is calling on us to open our hearts and our homes. In order to help Ukrainians recover from the trauma and violent displacement that they have experienced, we encourage everyone to welcome refugees in a sensitive and compassionate manner. We ask all parish communities to give serious consideration to ways in which refugees can be accommodated and integrated while with us." The bishops expressed support for the many prayer initiatives for peace in recent days. Given the importance of the national feast of Saint Patrick, they invited parishes to reach out on that day in a special way to the Ukrainian people living in Ireland and around the world, sending greetings of prayer and solidarity to them in this time of anguish.
