Festival in a Van—Shared Music Sessions: This year, Ukraine has undergone what was an unthinkable event for its' country and people, but they managed to win the hearts of the rest of the world through music, winning this year's Eurovision Song Contest. Last month (24th Aug) was Ukrainian Independence Day – a hard day for many to be positive if in asylum overseas, but there are many nuggets of hope for refugees in Ireland. One being, Festival in a Van, supported by Creative Ireland and Ireland's Local Authority Network. The Shared Music Sessions comes to Barry McGuigan Park on Monday 26th September, at 11.00am. Initially an idea to keep music and theatre alive during Covid, Festival in a Van hopes to provide a vital cultural link for Ukrainian and other refugees in Ireland. With Irish and Ukrainian musicians making a musical marriage, together with musicians from other refugee communities.
