Mother’s Day Reflection

On this Mothers’ Day we think of Mary, the Mother of God, whose life wasn’t easy or Instagram-worthy.
She lived quietly, attentively, with faithfulness and love.
She pondered things in her heart. She suffered, waited, hoped.
She reminds us that God is found in simplicity and honesty, not spectacle.
So, to any mother reading this:
You don’t have to do more, be more or fix everything.
You’re already doing sacred work.
Let your motherhood be your prayer. Let your presence be your gift.
Let gratitude open your heart to grace, again and again.
Because God isn’t waiting for you to get it all right.
He’s already here—in the spills, in the songs,
in the sacred ordinary.
And so is Mary, gently guiding us, embracing and covering us with her motherly and loving mantle, one breath at a time.
